To

H.V. Nanjundayya Esq: M.A. M.L
Secretary to the Government of
Mysore
General & Revenue Departments.

Sir, I have the honor to state that, two unused stamps papers (herein enclosed for reference) of the value of Rs 2½/- were purchased by one Munisappa on 27th December 1901. As they were not used by him, an application for refund of their value, according to rules, was put in by him before me on 18th October 1902. The reason urged by the applicant for not having applied for the refund within six months, as per rules, was that subsequent to the purchase by him of the above stamps papers he was under treatment by an occulist till the date of application and
